

CITY OF MONTROSE
RESOLUTION 2026-002
Election Board Pay

A Resolution authorizing expenditures for election board workers.

WHEREAS, the City of Montrose has determined a flat fee be established and paid to election board workers. In the event that the city and school district host a combined election date, the city will pay 50% of the election board pay and election school training costs in compliance with 2025 Combined Election City-School Agreement.

BE IT RESOLVED the City of Montrose hereby authorizes the general fund operating account elections department to provide a flat rate of pay of $200.00 on election day for each of the election board workers, plus $40.00 each worker that attends election school training with the county auditor and the city finance officer. The City will also reimburse the county auditors for their mileage for election school training.

Passed and Adopted this 13th day of January, 2026.
